Programmes Director

The course is accredited by the British Association for Counselling & Psychotherapy and the UK Council for Psychotherapy. The course is a Level 7, 120 credit award under the auspices of The Psychosynthesis & Education Trust following their pathway 'Postgraduate Diploma in Professional Development - Psychosynthesis Counselling'.

The programme is two years in duration and includes an integral supervised placement and completion of at least 100 supervised client hours. Placements are with reputable placement agencies which provide general counselling in a range of presentation issues. Counsellors-in-training attend supervision with the placement agencies in addition to attending supervision with the training organisation. Trainees are not allowed to see clients privately. The programme is accredited by BACP & UKCP for work with adult clients. Trainees are allowed to comprise up to 50% of their clinical hours with a specialist second placement agency where the clients are aged 16 years or over.
